

2026 Kern Agricultural Foundation BBQ AuxiliaryHoke Evetts Agricultural Education Scholarship

This scholarship is presented in memory of Hoke Evetts (1914-2003) by his daughter Tonja Evetts Wiemer and the Kern agricultural community. Hoke was an auctioneer, dairyman, businessman, cowboy, and volunteer for over 60 years at the Kern County Fair. He hitched a ride to California from Oklahoma with a friend in 1934, working on the cotton fields in the day and milking cows at night, earning a gallon of milk as pay for the day. Hoke and his wife made their first home out of a chicken coop south of Bakersfield. Hoke taught himself to auctioneer and became the owner of one of the most successful stockyards in the Valley. He never lost his sense of humor or generosity to help the agricultural youth of Kern County. If he made a nickel, he would give you a dime. His honors include Agriculturist of the Year by the California Senate and Assembly, and his name was added to the National Congressional Record.
