

Ronald R. Lehr Sr. Memorial Ag Scholarship

Scholarship-Cover Letter

Lehr Brothers was established in 1938 by Leo Lehr. Ron, Leo's son, enjoyed growing up in our farming community. He attended East Bakersfield High and was a standout athlete at Bakersfield College in football. A true farmer in every sense, he excelled in the potato business and later added citrus to his livelihood. In 1978, Ron purchased the business from family partners and established Lehr Brothers Inc. To continue his legacy of success in Kern County agriculture, the Ronald R. Lehr Sr. memorial Scholarship hopes to aid the needs of agriculture's next generation.

Eligibility:

1. Resident of Kern County
2. Minimum GPA of 3.0
3. Entering as a full-time student or continuing student in college or university with a major in agriculture.
4. If high school student, have met all requirements for admittance to college by end of senior year.
5. If awarded, be able to attend the Kern Ag Foundation Scholarship Dinner on Wednesday, May 6, 2026, at the Kern Ag Pavilion.
